

Once a Week Is All It Takes!

Sum It Up is committed to helping your child maintain and strengthen his/her skills over the summer. Area curricula are rigorous, and we want to help your child feel confident going into the school year. If no learning occurs over the summer, your child could actually regress. The goal of our programs is to bridge students' learning from one grade level to the next by offering an opportunity to reinforce and extend skills learned during the school year. Our class size never exceeds 6 students, which creates an ideal learning environment.

About Us

All Sum It Up programs are designed and taught by certified teachers with years of classroom experience. We are familiar with area curricula and motivational techniques for young learners. This summer will be our 7th year providing academic enrichment for area students.

Math Programs

Sum It Up general math programs allow children entering grades K-7 to review concepts covered during the school year and to preview new material for the coming fall. Each week will focus on a particular content area such as fractions, geometry, and computation. In small, non-competitive group settings, students will use manipulatives, problem solving strategies, games, and group discussion to generate an understanding of math.

For each class session, students will receive a work packet which contains work completed in class and a resource page with vocabulary & explanations that students can use as a reference. In addition, "at home" practice will be given so that parents can reinforce concepts at home.
